Our Events

International Yoga Day

We wholeheartedly participate in the global celebration of International Yoga Day on June 21st, honoring the ancient practice of yoga. We recognize yoga's transformative power, promoting wellness, unity, and empowerment. On this day, we raise awareness about yoga's benefits for physical, mental, and spiritual well-being, emphasizing its role in fostering healthier and more harmonious lives for individuals and communities.

Diwali

Diwali, the festival of lights, holds great significance for us as we are working to illuminate lives. On this occasion, we adorn our organization premises and extend warmth to the community by sharing sweets, distributing clothes, and providing food to the needy. Our aim is to spread joy and ensure everyone feels included in the festive celebrations, fostering a sense of unity and happiness among all.
